- (l) Enforcing obligations of the Unit Owners, allocating profits and expenses and taking such other actions as shall be deemed necessary and proper for the sound management of the Condominium.
- (m) Levying fines for the failure of the Owner of the Unit, or its occupant, licensee, or invitee to comply with provisions of the Condominium Documents or the Rules and Regulations established by the Association to govern conduct at the Condominium. The Board may levy a fine against a Unit Owner, not to exceed the maximum amount permitted by law, for each violation of the Condominium Documents or the Rules and Regulations, and a separate fine for each continuing violation, provided, however, written notice of the nature of the violation and notice of a hearing shall be given prior to the levy of the initial fine. No written notice or hearing shall be necessary for the levy of a separate fine for continued violations if substantially similar to the initial violation for which notice and a hearing was provided. The Board shall have the authority to adopt rules, regulations and policies to fully implement its fining authority.

The party against whom the fine is sought to be levied shall be provided with written notice of a hearing not less than fourteen (14) days before the hearing, which notice shall include:

1. A statement of the date, time and place of the hearing;
2. A statement of the provisions of the of the Condominium Documents or the Rules and Regulations which have allegedly been violated; and
3. A short and plain statement of the matters asserted by the Association.

The party against whom the fine may be levied shall have an opportunity to respond, to present evidence, and to provide written and oral argument on all issues involved and shall have an opportunity at the hearing to review, challenge, and respond to any material considered by the Association. The hearing shall be conducted before a panel of three (3) Unit Owners appointed by the Board, none of whom may then be officers, directors, or employees of the Association, or the spouse, parent, child, brother, or sister of an officer, director, or employee.

If the panel, by majority vote, which may be taken by secret ballot, does not agree with the fine, it may not be imposed and the Association shall not collect from the Unit Owner any costs, expenses, or attorney fees relating to the attempt to levy a fine. The minutes of the hearing shall contain a statement of the results of the hearing, and the fine, if any, that was imposed.

If the panel, by majority vote, which may be taken by secret ballot, determines to impose the fine levied by the Board, the Unit Owner shall be liable for all attorney fees and costs incurred by the Association incident to the levy or collection of the fine. Payment of the fine shall be due five (5) days after the date of the panel meeting at which the fine was imposed. Any partial payments received by the Association shall be first applied against attorney fees, then costs, and then the unpaid fines.

- (n) Suspend, for a reasonable period of time, the right of a Unit Owner, or a Unit Owner's tenant, guest, or invitee, to use the Common Elements or Association Property for failure to comply with the Condominium Documents or the Rules and Regulations.

The due process requirements, including the right to a hearing before a hearing panel, as set forth above in subsection 'm' as to fining, shall be applicable to suspensions under this subsection 'n'.

There shall be no suspension of the right to use a Limited Common Element intended to be used only by that Unit, Common Elements needed to access the Unit, utility services provided to the Unit, parking spaces, or elevators.

The due process requirements provided herein for suspensions shall not apply to suspensions of voting rights or use rights due to a Unit Owner being more than 90 days delinquent in paying a monetary obligation to the Association, which may be imposed by action at a duly noticed Board meeting. Upon approval, the Association shall notify the Unit Owner and, if applicable, the Unit's occupant, licensee, or invitee by mail or hand delivery.

- (o) Borrow money, pledge regular or special Assessments as collateral, and assign rights of collection to the lender in the event of a default under the loan, when required in connection with the operation of the Association or the maintenance, repair, replacement or improvement of the Common Elements or Condominium Property; provided, however, that approval by not less than two-thirds (2/3rds) of the Voting Interests of those Members participating at a duly noticed and convened Membership meeting shall be required for the borrowing of any sum in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the projected annual revenues for the year, including assessments due under the Association budget and revenues from the operation of the marina, in the aggregate in any calendar year.

- (p) Contracting for the management and maintenance of the Condominium and authorizing a management agent to assist the Association in carrying out its powers and duties by performing such functions as the submission of proposals, collection of Assessments, preparation of records, enforcement of rules and maintenance, repair, and replacement of the Common Elements and Association Property with such funds as shall be made available by the Association for such purposes. The Association and its officers shall, however, retain at all times the powers and duties granted by the Condominium Documents and the Act, including, but not limited to, the making of Assessments, promulgation of rules and execution of contracts on behalf of the Association.

All contracts for the purchase, lease, or renting of materials or equipment, all contracts for services, and any contract that is not to be fully performed within one year, shall be in writing. The Association shall obtain competitive bids for any contract which requires payment exceeding five (5%) percent of the total annual budget of the Association (except for contracts with employees of the Association, management firms, attorneys, accountants, architects, engineers, or landscape engineers), unless the products and services are needed as the result of any emergency or unless the desired supplier is the only source of supply within the county serving the Association. The Board need not accept the lowest bid but shall state in the official records why the lowest bid was not accepted.

Officers, directors, and managers of the Association must disclose to the entire Board any financial or ownership interest they may hold in any company that proposes to do business with the Association.

- (q) Exercising (i) all powers specifically set forth in the Condominium Documents—and in the Act, (ii) all powers incidental thereto, and (iii) all other powers granted by statute or other law to a Florida corporation not for profit.

- (r) Convey a portion of the Common Elements or Association Property to a condemning authority to provide utility easements, right-of-way expansion, or other public purposes, whether negotiated or as a result of eminent domain proceedings.

7. Emergency Board Powers.

In the event of any “emergency” as defined in Section 7(g) below, the Board may exercise the emergency powers described in this section, and any other emergency powers authorized by Sections 617.0207, and 617.0303, Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time.

- (a) The Board may name as assistant officers persons who are not directors, which assistant officers shall have the same authority as the executive officers to whom they are assistant during the period of the emergency, to accommodate the incapacity of any officer of the Association.
- (b) The Board may relocate the principal office or designate alternative principal offices or authorize the officers to do so.
- (c) During any emergency the Board may cancel or postpone Membership, committee and Board meetings, or may hold meetings with notice given only to those directors and/or Members with whom it is practicable to communicate, and the notice may be given in any practicable manner, including publication or radio. The director or directors in attendance at such Board meeting shall constitute a quorum.
- (d) Corporate action taken in good faith during an emergency under this Section to further the ordinary affairs of the Association shall bind the Association and shall have the rebuttable presumption of being reasonable and necessary.
- (e) Any officer, director, or employee of the Association acting with a reasonable belief that their actions are lawful in accordance with these emergency Bylaws shall incur no liability for doing so, except in the case of the willful misconduct.
- (f) These emergency Bylaws shall supersede any inconsistent or contrary provisions of the Bylaws during the period of the emergency.
- (g) For purposes of this Section only, an “emergency” exists only during a period of time that the Condominium, or the immediate geographic area in which the Condominium is located, is subjected to:
 - (1) a state of emergency is declared by governmental authorities;
 - (2) a hurricane warning;
 - (3) a partial or complete evacuation order;
 - (4) federal or state “disaster area” status; or
 - (5) a catastrophic occurrence, whether natural or manmade, which seriously damages or threatens to seriously damage the physical existence of the Condominium, such as an earthquake, tidal wave, fire, hurricane, tornado, war, civil unrest, or act of terrorism.
 - (6) a catastrophic occurrence, whether natural or manmade, which seriously threatens the health or safety of the residents of the Condominium, such as a pandemic or existence of a dangerous virus.

An “emergency” also exists for purposes of this section during the time when a quorum of the Board cannot readily be assembled because of the occurrence of a catastrophic event, such as a hurricane, earthquake, act of terrorism, or other event. A determination by any two (2) directors, or by the President, that an emergency exists shall have presumptive quality.

8. Officers.

8.1 Executive Officers. The executive officers of the Association shall be a President, Vice-President, a Treasurer, and a Secretary, all of whom must be directors. All officers shall be elected by the Board and may be peremptorily removed at any meeting by concurrence of a majority of all of the directors. A person may hold more than one (1) office, except that the President may not also be the Secretary or Treasurer, or an Assistant Secretary or Assistant Treasurer. No person shall sign an instrument or perform an act in the capacity of more than one office. The Board from time to time shall elect such other officers and designate their powers and duties as the Board shall deem necessary or appropriate to manage the affairs of the Association.

8.2 President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association and shall have all of the powers and duties that are usually vested in the office of president of a condominium association.

8.3 Vice-President. The Vice-President shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the President in the absence or disability of the President, and shall assist the President and exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as are incident to the office of the vice-president of an association and as may be required by the directors or the President.

8.4 Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all proceedings of the directors and the Members, shall attend to the giving of all notices to the Members and directors and other notices required by law, and shall keep the records of the Association, except those of the Treasurer, and shall perform all other duties incident to the office of the secretary of an association and as may be required by the directors or the President.

8.5 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall keep books of account for the Association in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices, which, together with substantiating papers, shall be made available to all directors for examination at reasonable times. The Treasurer shall submit a Treasurer's report to the Board at reasonable intervals and shall perform all other duties incident to the office of treasurer and as may be required by the directors or the President.

8.6 Delegation. The Board may delegate any or all of the functions of the Secretary or Treasurer to a management agent or employee, provided that the Secretary or Treasurer shall in such instance generally supervise the performance of the agent or employee in the performance of such functions.

9. Compensation. Neither directors nor officers shall receive any compensation for any services.

10. Resignations. Any director or officer may resign his or her post at any time by written resignation, delivered to the President or Secretary, which shall take effect upon its receipt unless a later date is specified in the resignation, in which event the resignation shall be effective from such date unless withdrawn. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be required to make it effective. The conveyance of all Units owned by any director or officer shall constitute a resignation of such director or officer without need for a written resignation, or the occurrence of any other event that would make a director or officer ineligible to serve in that capacity, shall constitute a resignation of such director or officer without need for a written resignation. Any officer or director delinquent in the payment of regular Assessments in excess of 90 days shall be deemed to have abandoned office as provided in the Act.

11. Fiscal Matters. The provisions for fiscal management of the Association set forth in the Declaration of Condominium shall be supplemented by the following:
 - 11.1 Budget. The Board shall adopt a budget of Common Expense for the Condominium not less than fourteen (14) days before the start of the new fiscal year. Copies of the proposed budget, and a notice stating the time, date and place of the meeting of the Board at which the budget will be adopted, shall be mailed to or served on the Members not less than fourteen (14) days before that meeting. The proposed budget must be detailed and must show the amounts budgeted by income and expense classifications.
 - 11.2 Statutory Reserves for Capital Expenditures and Deferred Maintenance. In addition to operating expenses, the proposed budget must include provisions for funding reserve accounts for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance, as required by law. These accounts shall include roof replacement, building painting, and pavement resurfacing. They shall also include any other planned or foreseeable capital expenditures or deferred maintenance item with a current estimated cost of $10,000 or more. Funding formulas for reserves shall be based on either a separate analysis of each of the required assets or a pooled analysis of two or more of the required assets. These reserves must be funded unless the Members subsequently determine, by vote of not less than a majority of the Voting Interests of those Members participating at a duly noticed and convened Membership meeting, to fund no reserves, or less than adequate reserves, for a fiscal year. The vote to waive or reduce reserves, if any is taken, may be taken only after the proposed budget has been mailed to the Members as required in Section 11.1 above, in which case, such waiver shall be retroactive to the beginning of the fiscal year upon which the vote was taken. The funds in a reserve account established under this Section 11.2, and all interest earned on the account, shall be used only for the purposes for which the reserve account is established, unless use for another purpose is approved in advance by a majority of the Voting Interests of those Members participating at a duly noticed and convened Membership meeting.
 - 11.3 Contingency Accounts. In addition to the statutory reserves described in Section 11.2 above, or in place of them if the Members so vote, the Board may establish one or more additional accounts in the operating budget for contingencies, operating expenses, repairs, minor improvements or special projects. These funds may be used to offset cash flow shortages, provide financial stability, avoid the need for special Assessments or for any purpose approved by the Board.
 - 11.4 Assessments; Installments. Regular annual Assessments based on an adopted budget shall be payable in quarterly installments, in advance, due on the first day of January, April, July and October of the fiscal year. If an annual budget has not been adopted at the time the first quarterly installment for a fiscal year is due, it shall be presumed that the amount of such installment is the same as the last quarterly payment, and payments shall be continued at such rate until a budget is adopted and new quarterly installments are calculated, at which time an appropriate adjustment shall be added to or subtracted from each Unit's next due quarterly installment.
 - 11.5 Special Assessments. Special Assessments may be imposed by the Board to meet unusual, unexpected, unbudgeted, or non-recurring expenses. Special Assessments are due on the day specified in the resolution of the Board approving such Assessments. The notice of any Board meeting at which a special Assessment will be considered shall be given as provided in Section 5.7 above; and the notice to the Members that the Assessment has been levied must contain a statement of the purpose(s) of the Assessment. The funds collected must be spent for the stated purpose(s) or returned to the Members as provided by law. The authority of the Board to levy special Assessments under this provision without Membership approval shall not be interpreted to eliminate requirements for Membership approval that may otherwise be applicable. For example, if a purpose of a special Assessment is to fund a project that materially alters the Common Elements, Membership approval of the project may continue to be necessary under the Declaration of Condominium as provided therein.

- 11.6 Fidelity Bonds or Insurance. The President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, and all other persons who are authorized to sign checks or disburse money, shall be bonded in such amounts as may be required by law or otherwise determined by the Board. The cost of such bonds or insurance shall be a Common Expense.
- 11.7 Financial Reports. In accordance with Section 718.111(13) of the Condominium Act, not later than June 1 of each year, the Board shall, as a minimal requirement, distribute to the Members a report showing in reasonable detail the financial condition of the Association as of the close of the fiscal year, and an income and expense statement for the year, detailed by accounts. The Board must, if required by law and not waived by the Membership, and may otherwise, in their discretion, engage a CPA and have a more comprehensive analysis accomplished, which shall be distributed to the Members not later than June 1 of each year in lieu of the financial report referenced above. In lieu of the distribution of financial reports as provided herein, the Association may distribute each Member not later than June 1 of each year a notice that a copy of the financial report will be mailed or hand delivered to the Member, without charge, upon receipt of a written request from the Member.
- 11.8 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year for the Association shall begin on the first day of January of each calendar year. The Board may adopt a different fiscal year in accordance with law and the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service.
- 11.9 Depository. The depository of the Association shall be such bank, banks or other federally insured depository, in the State, as shall be designated from time to time by the Board and in which the monies of the Association shall be deposited not to exceed the amount of federal insurance available for any account. Withdrawal or transfers of monies from those accounts shall be made only by such person or persons authorized in writing by the Board. All funds shall be maintained separately in the Association's name. Provided, nothing herein shall restrict the Board from making prudent investments consistent with their fiduciary duty, as long as the investments are insured or guaranteed.
12. Roster of Unit Owners. Each Unit Owner shall file with the Association a copy of the deed or other document whereby the Unit Owner acquired title to a Unit. The Association shall maintain such information and may rely upon the accuracy of such information for all purposes until notified in writing of changes therein as provided above. Only Unit Owners of record on the date notice of any meeting requiring their vote is given shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting, unless prior to such meeting other Unit Owners shall produce adequate evidence, as provided above, of their ownership interest and shall waive in writing notice of such meeting.
13. Parliamentary Rules. Roberts' Rules of Order (latest edition) shall govern the conduct of the Association meetings when not in conflict with the Condominium or Corporate Acts, case law, the Condominium Documents or Rules and Regulations adopted from time to time by the Board to regulate the participation of Unit Owners at Board, Membership and committee meetings, and to otherwise provide for orderly corporate operations, provided however, failure to comply with Roberts' Rules shall not invalidate otherwise valid acts.
14. Amendments. These Bylaws may be amended in the following manner:
 - 14.1 Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of a meeting at which a proposed amendment is to be considered.
 - 14.2 Resolution. A resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment may be proposed either by vote of not less than a majority of the entire membership of the Board or by not less than twenty (20%) percent of the Voting Interests of the Members.

- 14.3 Adoption. Except as otherwise required by law, a proposed amendment shall be adopted if it is approved by vote of not less than a majority of the entire membership of the Board and by vote of not less than two-thirds of the Voting Interests of those Members participating at a duly noticed and convened Membership meeting.
- 14.4 Certificate and Recording. A copy of each amendment shall be attached to a certificate certifying that the amendment was duly adopted, which certificate shall be executed by the President or Vice-President with the formalities of a deed. The amendment shall be effective when the certificate and a copy of the amendment is recorded in the Public Records of Sarasota County.
- 14.5 Amendments by Board. The Board, by a two-thirds vote of the entire Board, may effect an amendment to the Bylaws in any of the following circumstances:

(a) To bring the Bylaws into compliance with the provisions of subsequently enacted laws, rules or regulations adopted by governmental authority which, in the opinion of counsel for the Association, are reasonably likely to be applicable to the Association.

(b) If the Board determines that as a result of new, changing, or evolving technology, materials, procedures, devices or standards the Bylaws should be amended to take cognizance of such matters so that the overall intent of the Condominium Documents shall not be frustrated by changing circumstances.

(c) If the Board determines, in the reasonable exercise of its judgment, that there is a scrivener's error or other error or omission that results in an ambiguity, inconsistency or an incomplete provision, or if experience with a particular provision results in an ambiguity with respect to the practical application of such provision.

Provided, however, that no Board adopted amendment to the Bylaws pursuant to this Section shall go into effect until not fewer than sixty (60) days' notice of the amendment shall have been given to the Members. If, during the time between the giving of such notice and the proposed effective date stated therein, Members having not less than ten (10%) percent of all Voting Interests request in writing that a meeting of the Members be called, then and in such event, the Board shall call such meeting promptly, the purpose of which meeting shall be to determine whether or not the amendment adopted by the Board shall go into effect. Effectiveness of any amendment shall be suspended until the end of such meeting. At such duly noticed and convened meeting, a majority of those Voting Interests participating may determine that the amendment adopted by the Board, or any part thereof, shall not be effective. If a quorum is not obtained at such meeting, or if at such meeting there is no majority vote against such amendment, then the amendment shall go into effect at the later of the date specified in the notice, or the conclusion of such meeting.

15. Rules and Regulations. The Board may, from time to time, adopt, amend or add to Rules and Regulations governing the use of Units, Common Elements, Association Property, and the operation of the Association. However, any Board-promulgated rule may be rescinded or amended upon the written action or vote of not less than two-thirds of the Voting Interests of those Members participating at a duly noticed and convened Membership meeting. Copies of adopted, amended or additional Rules and Regulations shall be furnished by the Board to each Member not less than thirty days prior to the effective date thereof, and shall be valid and enforceable notwithstanding whether recorded in the public records.
16. Construction. Wherever the context so permits, the singular shall include the plural, the plural shall include the singular, and the use of any gender shall be deemed to include all genders.
17. Captions. The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define or limit the scope of these Bylaws or the intent of any provision hereof.

18. Document Conflict. If any irreconcilable conflict should exist, or hereafter arise, the provisions of the Declaration shall take precedence over the Articles of Incorporation, which shall prevail over the provisions of these Bylaws, which shall prevail over the Rules and Regulation.
19. Social Activities. The Board shall have the authority to expend not more than one (1%) percent of the overall Association budget for social activities, including without limitation, parties held for the benefit of Owners, residents, and employees of the Association, get well cards, flowers, and similar social activities, all of which shall be a common expense of the Association.

The foregoing were adopted as the Amended and Restated Bylaws of The Dock on the Bay Association, Inc. on the ___ day of July, 2022.
